“Worship a Different Way” Service

With the month of January a blur, we want to let our church family know how much we appreciated the constant (and answered) prayers, cards, calls, emails, support and everything in between. Now that Rick is home, he's recuperating with the help of lots of rest, therapies, including speech (and music) therapy. It's going to be a while before we're both back in church... Rick struggles with words and understanding, as well as overwhelmed with lots of noise and stimulation. I was told this is typical with a brain injury. We're hoping these challenges too will pass as we're taking it a day at a time. We know his remarkable improvement is the result of your continued prayers!

Feeling Thankful and Blessed
