

“Bonding People to the Church”

One of the frustrations of church life is that people come in the front door of the church and leave far too frequently through the back door. How do we stop this?

Elmer Town [Winning the Winnable, p. 43] writes: “Research shows that a new convert must become a part of a primary group within two weeks of joining the church, or he will become a dropout statistic.”

Why a Primary Group Immediately:

1. Discipleship is a _____ & a _____.
2. Discipleship is _____.
3. Discipleship is _____.

Why Converts Do Not Bond to Groups:

Make Your Church More Effective:

1. Use the Existing Classes _____.
 - Sometimes this is just NOT enough. If you are going to bond some newcomers, you will have to...
2. Create _____ When...
 - You can do so without forcing a group to divide!
 - You can recruit a few to voluntarily help form a new group/class.
